

League of Nations - Seventh Assembly

Reel 1.

Geneva, Switzerland, 1926

Geneva Film ~~35mm silent (edited) duplicate~~ ^{French/} (English titles)35mm silent (edited) dupe negative " " 1,200
(safety)

1. Quotation from preamble to League of Nations' covenant.
2. Sir Eric Drummond, Secretary of League of Nations, at his desk, dictating to his secretary, signing documents.
3. Exteriors of Geneva (railroad station, incoming trains, etc., Lake Geneva with boats).
4. Unidentified delegates at railroad station.
5. Flags of various nations being displayed from balconies of buildings.
6. Delegates on streets, outside their hotels (including Briand (France), Sciajola (Italy), Stresemann (Germany), Adaci (Japan), Motta (Swiss Confederation), Apponyi (Hungary) and Benes (Czechoslovakia)).
7. Exteriors: streets, crowd, Woodrow Wilson memorial plaque, sight-seeing buses with delegates, automobiles, taxi cabs,

8. Lobby: delegates shaking hands, in conversation (among delegates: Dr. Nansen (Norway), Albert Thomas (Director General of ILO) and Benctoff (Germany)).
9. Exteriors on the terrace: Japanese and Latin American delegates including Uruttia from Colombia and Guani from Uruguay.
10. Interiors; Various shots of council with delegates before opening of meeting. Public. Shots during meeting. Delegates leaving council chamber (among them: Sciajola (Italy), Villegas (Chile), Briand (France), de Bethancourt (Cuba)).
11. Empty council room.
12. Members of Secretariat at work (typists; pages of documents being assembled, etc.)
13. Recreation activities for delegates and Secretariat - sailing, golf and tennis (Sir Eric Drummond seen)
14. Garden party - Lord Lytton identifiable amongst guests
Close shots of various delegates.

(Catalogued by UN Archives Photographic & Sound Unit)