

Algerian-UN Cooperation
Algeria, November-December 1967
Les Actualites Algeriennes # 42/67
16mm composite B&W print 360'
Poor Quality

Edited compilation reel with French commentaries and background music.

In commemoration of the 22nd Anniversary of the United Nations Organization, Algerian newsreel company produced this film showing the different aspects of cooperation between the the United Nations, its Specialized Agencies, and Algeria. Numerous shots showing cooperation in the following fields:--

- Telecommunication: Algerian government with the help of the International Telecommunications Union, inaugurated the National School for Telecommunications Training of technicians in different fields of Telecommunication by ITU experts.
- National Aviation and Meteorological Institutes being helped by advisors and experts from ICAO and W.M.O.

National.....

- National Institute for Professional Training with U.N. experts helping in various fields
- Experts from International Labour Organization and from F.A.O. (training of students, agricultural instruction, etc.)
- Fundamental education (UNESCO experts)
- Child care (UNICEF experts).

For details see French commentaries in file