

FILMS UNITED NATIONS NATIONS UNIES

"WOMEN AND APARTHEID"

60 second TV spot

NARRATOR

It's a terrible thing to be an African woman in South Africa.

She is the one who suffers the most under apartheid. Apartheid laws mean that she has to live in a reserved area or "homeland" while her husband goes to find work in the city.

Alone she lives and works and raises her children without their father.

Apartheid is a crime against humanity.

(Subtitle)

(He does not write to me anymore)